

Brush Creek Nursery School

NOW HIRING

Brush Creek Nursery School is currently hiring a part-time Early Childhood Educator for the Fall 2023 school year.

WHO WE ARE:

Brush Creek Nursery School is a local non-profit with a longstanding reputation for providing high-quality preschool programming in Sonoma County. We are a group of experienced, passionate Early Childhood Educators who have worked together as a teaching team for many years.

We believe that the foundations of lifelong learning begins with quality, child-centered and play-based experiences that foster curiosity and joy. Located along the Brush Creek in Santa Rosa, our secluded campus offers nearly an acre of outdoor classroom/play space.

WE'RE LOOKING FOR EDUCATORS WHO:

- Foster child-centered, and play-based opportunities for learning.
- Build positive, safe and constructive relationships with children.
- Can adapt materials and approaches that meet an individual child's needs.
- Are friendly and approachable with colleagues and families.
- Are interested in engaging with new methodologies and professional learning.
- Are responsible, arrive to obligations on time and are prepared for a teaching day.
- Are interested in providing and receiving mentorship from other members of the team.

REQUIREMENTS:

- Highschool or Equivalent
- Minimum of 12 ECE units
- Fingerprinting & Background Check
- Current Negative TB test
- CPR Certification

THE BRUSH CREEK EXPERIENCE:

- Room to grow in the ECE field.
- Professional development opportunities.
- Reflective practice once a month with a community professional.
- Competitive benefits plan.
- Competitive wages.

For more information, or to submit your resume contact:

School Director, Ally Madrid · (707) 539 - 1612 · nsbrushcreek@sbcglobal.net